

A DIFFERENT KIND OF LIFE

This is an inspirational romance set in beautiful Prince Edward Island, Canada. Professor Jon Andrews from Montreal takes a years leave of absence to spend in a cabin in the woods on PEI and is quickly taken under wing by a kindly and devout local farm family, the MacDonalds. They introduce him to various cultural aspects of the island such as a traditional ceilidh, a home bible study, and Christmas celebrations at the little community church. When tragedy strikes he rises to the the challenge by being the helping hand needed and finds himself growing in surprising ways while also falling secretly in love. This story will transport you to Prince Edward Island where life is lived at a charmingly slower pace and you can practically smell the salty sea air and hear the sounds of the waves of the Northumberland Strait.

Formula One motor racing is full of ruthless, driven people, few of them over concerned about being liked, let alone loved.
