

All Grown Up

I was fourteen when it happened. The day the Mackeys moved into the house next door. The day that changed my life, as much as it was, forever. A tiny, blonde girl standing on my doorstep would be the beginning of the craziness which became my life. This girl became my best friend, my confidant and side kick. She also introduced me to the love of my life. Chloe, a computer and gaming nerd, hides behind the scenes in school and keeps to herself. Mina enters her world like a hurricane, helping her find herself and introduces her to Leo, Minas gorgeous older brother. Chloe instantly developed a crush, but knows he only sees her as Minas best friend. Or does he? Leo, graduating high school and trying to figure out what to do with his life, becomes immediately mesmerized by a gorgeous, tall brunette, dancing like she hadnt a care in the world and laughing without restraint. Dumbfounded to find out this amazingly beautiful girl is Chloe, Minas best friend. He fights against his desire, determined he and Chloe cannot be together. But how long can you fight against true love? All Grown Up is a laugh out loud, heartwarming and heart breaking tale following the lives of Chloe and Leo and all of their misfit friends. Through long distance and separate paths of life, can true love prevail once youre all grown up?
