From the Power of the Matchmaker series: BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH Cassandra Webbs every waking minute is devoted to being a great mother and wife. She takes five-year-old Noah to the library each week, volunteers in his kindergarten class, and even coaches his soccer team. She makes sure her husbands uniforms are always laundered even though he hasn't worn them the last six years always has his game day snacks on hand, and meets him for date night every Friday which consists of one-sided conversations at his bedside and watching his favorite take out remain untouched. Pearl, a mysterious visitor at the care center, suggests that it is only Cassie's love still tying Devon to Earth when he has been ready to move onto Heaven for quite some time. If Cassie will but open her eyes and heart, she will discover the path she should travel, one that will bring relief to Devon and much joy to her own life. But Cassie vowed never to give up on him. She never has and she can't now, even after meeting hapless, single soccer-dad Matt.
