Grant Fontaine is the widowed president of his father-in-laws electronics company. Since the tragic death of his pregnant wife a decade ago, hes become a high achieving businessman, but a social hermit. Several years ago, his lonely life took on new meaning when he discovered that the donation hed made to a reproductive clinic long ago had sired a child. Through the services of a discreet private eye unafraid to push legal limits, he identifies his daughter, Caroline, and her mother, Alyssa Stark. He satisfies himself with maintaining a watchful eye from a distance, keeping his identity secret until Caroline reaches adulthood. That is, until Alyssas career path transports her into his professional realm. Now, his careful plans are thrown out the window. His dream of being a part of Carolines childhood is so close the last thing he counts on is falling in love with the girls gorgeous mother.
