

Obsessed

Sex is just a word until you read this book. Then it becomes something wonderful, also communications between a Man and a Woman. Daniel would love to meet Laura but she eludes him. This is a true story of two people who fall in love through a dating agency but have never met. Laura is a titillating writer who manages to fall in love with another writer, Daniel. It goes on for over two years. Together they have written thousands of emails and as many phone calls. Laura claims she has never lied to Daniel and Daniel accepts that. Through the marvelous use of compassion and the world of fantasy they marry and go on a honeymoon. Daniel composes the vows that each of them say and their Declarations of Love. If you find this confusing then I suggest you buy the book and read it. I think you will be delighted to find that Sex not only ends chapters but in fact makes a whole chapter.
