

Tudor Redemption (Tudor Dynasty) (Volume 4)

He had the fame, the fans and the money but lost it all. Now he wants it back. An aging rock star struggles to deal with unexpected changes in his life, including an explosive secret from his troubled past. Damien Tudor, oldest brother in the famed Tudor dynasty, had his turn in the spotlight with his band Ripp Tyde. Then health problems and an ugly divorce stripped him of everything. Slowly, he rebuilt his life. He has a state-of-the-art sailboat to ply the waters of Puget Sound, and two beloved daughters, Courtney and Brittney. But he's restless, ready to build a new life for himself. Should he dare a career come-back or settle into maturity managing new, younger talent? Damien gathers material for a new solo album of his own, music that could be his best ever. Then an old love, Beth Asher, reappears with a secret from the past that will blow apart everything Damien thought he knew about his life. But he must cope as rising rock star Ethan Maverick asks to sign on as his first client, and his toxic ex-wife reappears, searching for ways to discredit Damien and push her own career. What will all this mean for Damien's yearning to step back into the spotlight? Will life slip through his fingers again or can this rocker find his redemption?
